Answer LABOR MARKET INFORMATION needs through
RESEARCH & ANALYSIS
Division of the
ILLINOIS BUREAU OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY

Information on the economy, the labor force, employment and unemployment is available free of charge or on a cost-recovery basis from Research and Analysis.

The range of Labor Market Information available from R&A includes:

- Current labor force and unemployment data, for the State and sub-areas;

- Current employment, earnings, hours worked, by industry;

- Wages, by occupation and industry;

- Current occupational staffing patterns, by industry;

- Projected employment (1980 to 1990): by occupation for more than 400 occupations; by industry for major groups;

- Affirmative Action/EEO data;

- Planning information: forecasts of the economy and characteristics of the labor force.

Data and information are available for the State, sub-areas, counties, and JTPA Service Delivery Areas.

Most data are available on a regular basis through one of R&A's publications:

- Monthly:* Illinois Labor Market Review (statewide) and Labor Area Trends (sub-areas) report on the local economy, labor force, employment and unemployment.

- Annual:* Annual Planning Information Report; Illinois Wage Survey; Occupational Employment Survey.

- Special:* Where Workers Work: report on Chicago MSA industrial employment by location.
